Monday, December 29. 1707.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated January 3.

Messina, November 27.

MONEY growing very scarce in this Kingdom, the Marquis de Balbafes our Viceroy desir'd of this City a Loan of 350000 Ducats for paying the Troops: Our Council have granted him that Loan, on Condition that several burthen-some Imposts lately laid on the People should be abolish'd. We are extremely mortify'd here with the Miscarriage of the Enterprize on the Town of Squillace in Calabria: And the Death of Collonel Odalla Ciscain, who was Governour of our Citadel, is much lamented: With him above 200 Soldiers lost their Lives in that fruitless Expedition. On Advice that the Enemy make great Preparations at Naples and other Places of that Kingdom, with Design to attempt to take this City or Palermo, Orders are issued to the Country-Militia to hold themselves ready to march down to the Coasts on the 1st Notice. Five French Frigates are arriv'd here from Toulon.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 3.

Basil, Decemb. 25. The Diet of the Protestant Cantons held at Langenthal is ended; and Yesterday the Deputies return'd home. 'Tis expected the Marquis de Puissieux will acquit himself of the Promise he made to the said Deputies that were with him at Soluthurn, namely to use his good Offices with the King his Master that he may agree to the Re-establishment of Neutrality and Commerce between the Principality of Neuchatel and the Franche-Comte. In the mean time those of the Principality of Neuchatel keep upon their Guard, and the Militia of the Canton of Bern are in a readiness to march to their Assistance if Need require. The Magistrates of Neuchatel have admitted M. Stanian Minister of Great Britain, M. Runkel Minister of the States-General, and M. Saphorin the Emperour's Resident, into the Burghership of their City; in Consideration of the great Pains they took in promoting the late Election of the King of Prussia to the Principality of Neuchatel and Valangin.

Francfort, Decemb. 28. The Deputies of the States of the Circle of Swabia who were assembled at Ulm, have separated after having resolv'd to recruit their Troops forthwith, and to send in early their Contingent to the Army of the Empire. We have Advice from Alsace, that the French are storing large Magazines at Strasbourg, Bezançon, Fort-Louis, Metz, and Saar-Louis, which are to be fill'd in 5 Weeks, in Order to their Army's taking the Field before the Germans are ready.

Cologne, Decemb. 30. By Letters from Coblentz of the 28th Instant we are inform'd, that the French are hard at Work upon new Fortifications to Saar-Louis and Fort St. Martin at Trier; that they are providing great Magazines at Metz and Thionville; and that they talk of forming very early a flying Camp at Koning-Macheren.

Berlin, Decemb. 24. This Court have receiv'd the Present of the States-General to the Infant-Prince: It consists of a Gold Basin, and a Gold Box in which were found 8000 Dutch Florins, and a Promissory Note of an Annuity of 4000 Florins. The Elector of Hanover has also sent him a Present of 40000 new-coin'd Ducats. The Prince-Royal's Field-Equipage is getting ready, the King having given him Leave to make the next Campaign on the Upper-Rhine under the Elector of Hanover. Letters from Dresden tell us the lower Apartments of the Palace were fitting up for lodging the King of Sweden, who 'twas reported was to come thither to confer with King Augustus.

Breslau, Decemb. 16. Fifty Churches are already restor'd to the Lutherans of the Principality of Brieg. Yesterday the Emperour's Commissioners arriv'd here from Brieg. To Day they had a Conference with Baron Stralenheim, and having sent for some of our Magistrates demanded of them a List of the Churches in this City and its Dependancies that ought to be restor'd to the Lutherans. The said Commissioners are to go from hence to Morrow, to give Orders for the Restitution of the Churches in the Principality of Lignits. Whence they will proceed to Wolaw and Munsterberg to give like Orders, and then return hither.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Dec. 3.

Breslau, Dec. 18. Letters from Dantzick tell us, that the Envoys of the King of France and of the Elector of Bavaria were there, but made no Shew of having any Business: That the Princess Ragotski receiving no Pension from the King of France, was oblig'd to live sparingly in a House of little Rent, M. de Bonacq having told her that the Money his Master furnish'd her Husband ought to be employ'd wholly in War. 'Tis thought here, that the King of Sweden will come back into this Country with Part of his Troops; while the rest remain in Poland, to make an Interest for King Stanislaus among the Nobility who are to be Summon'd to hold a Diet at Warsaw.

Hamburg, Decemb. 27. From Dantzick 'tis advis'd, that by Order of King Stanislaus that City had paid to M. Powiatowski 90000 Guilders; and are to furnish several thousand Rixdollars towards raising Recruits, or otherwise to raise Recruits themselves.

Hamburg, Decemb. 30. Letters from Poland inform us, that the Wet Season had hindered the Swedes from marching: But that his Swedish Majesty had caus'd a Manifesto to be Printed in the Russian Language, as if he design'd the first Frosty Weather to advance towards the Muscovites, and even to follow them into their own Country if they retire before him.
